

43/03/2022 Beyer/Hilderman
CARRIED

That all residential building permit applications must include a Geotechnical Inspection Report that is not older than two years from the date of the application. The property owners must ensure that they comply with the report.